FUNDAMENTAL OF JAVA   ASSIGNMENT

1.what is programming language?
Programming language is vocabulary and set of grammatical rules to instructing the computer or computing device to perform specific tasks.

2.why do we need of programming language?
Communicate with computer and develop the application to perform the specific task.

3.what are the features of java?
Simple , object oriented , portable , platform independent, robust, secure , interpreted, multithreaded.

4.what is an object?
Unit of the code eventually derived from process. Object are things you think first designing the program.

5. What is the class?
Template which use to create the object.
And to define objects data type and methods.

6.explain about main() method in java ?
Main method is entry point to executing the java program.